

Two Sunsets, One Camera

“A silhouette of the newest sculpture in Ferran Park frames a picture perfect sunset At Lake Eustis. Appropriately named Sunset, the welded steel sculpture by Colombian Artist Gus Ocamposilva is one of 18 pieces of public art in downtown Eustis and has Become a popular spot for family photos. The lakeside city now boasts one piece of Public art per 1.000 residents, one of the highest ratios in the U.S. Thanks, Gus, for Helping me get the perfect shot.”

-Mary Ann DeSantis